

Parish of St Josephine Bakhita

PARISH PRIEST

Rev Fr
Anthony Roger Afaako

This year, the Solemnity of All Saints falls on a Sunday, inviting us to reflect more deeply on our calling to holiness and the hope of eternal life. As we enter November, the Church also encourages us to remember in prayer our loved ones who have gone before us.

In the first reading today (Revelation 7:2–4, 9–14), St John offers us a beautiful vision of a great multitude from every nation, standing before God's throne. They remind us that holiness is possible for all who remain faithful to Christ. The Psalm invites us to approach the Lord with clean hands and pure hearts, while St John assures us that we are already God's children, called to see Him as He truly is (1 John 3:1–3).

In the Gospel (Matthew 5:1–12), Jesus presents the Beatitudes as the path to holiness: a life of mercy, humility, purity of heart, peace-making and faithfulness, even in times of suffering. The saints were ordinary people who allowed God to work through them in extraordinary ways.

As a Church, we celebrate the communion of saints, united in Christ across heaven and earth. Their lives inspire us, while the memory of our departed loved ones invites us to pray with love and trust in God's mercy.

Throughout November, let us remember our departed in our Masses and prayers, cherish their legacy of love, and renew our commitment to live the Gospel. May the saints inspire us and may Christ lead us all to the fullness of life in His presence.

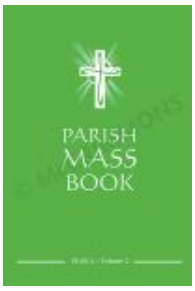

With prayer and every blessing,

Fr Anthony

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BECOMING A DEACON?

The deacon embodies the spirit of service and compassion in the Church, a man who is dedicated and humble, uniquely ordained to help both the spiritual needs and the practical needs of a community. Candidates for the diaconate are typically mature men between the ages of 30 and 65. If they are married, they must be in a stable sacramental marriage.

The journey to discern if you have a calling to the diaconate involves asking yourself whether you have a genuine desire to serve God and His Church in this capacity. We invite you to attend either or both of our enquirers' events to learn more about the role of deacons, their ministry in parish life, and to support your prayerful discernment

In Person: Tuesday 24th November, 7pm, St Oswald and St Edmund Arrowsmith Canon's Hall, Liverpool Road, Ashton-in-Makerfield.
